

Application for WPDA Charitable Donation

Western Pennsylvania Dressage Association makes an annual donation to a deserving non-profit organization that is, ideally, dedicated to the welfare of the horse. The amount of the donation is based in part on profits from the organization's annual horse shows, currently held in Jefferson, Ohio.

The WPDA Executive Board makes the final decision after considering all applications received. Applications must be postmarked and mailed to the contact listed below before October 30, 2010.
